

The Art of Thomas' Travels

It is thought that, as Thomas travelled across central Asia, he made approximately 560 sketches. Many of his most famous paintings are of places that he visited on his journey. Here are some examples of these paintings.

Kara-Noor, Formed by Lava of the Djem-a-Louk, Saian Mountains, Mongolia

The Black Irkout, Oriental Siberia

You can see more examples of Thomas' art work by looking at the illustrations in his book.

Views of Zaloust (a town in the Urals, approx. 100 miles south of Yekaterinburg)

